BICENTENNIAL MESSAGE

The Bicentennial Years, 1975-76 are of special concern to the ANCIENT & HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY of Massachusetts.

Being the oldest chartered military organization in the Western World, and the third oldest in the world (after the Honourable Artillery Company of London and the Swiss Guard of the Vatican), the ANCIENT & HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY has been mentioned in many Bicentennial articles.

A highlight of this significance was the election of Brigadier General James E. Clair, Past Commander, as Commander of The Centennial Legion of Historic Military Commands, the organization of all major Revolutionary military organizations from Maine to Virginia. Having been founded in 1638 the ANCIENT & HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY is by far the oldest of these commands.

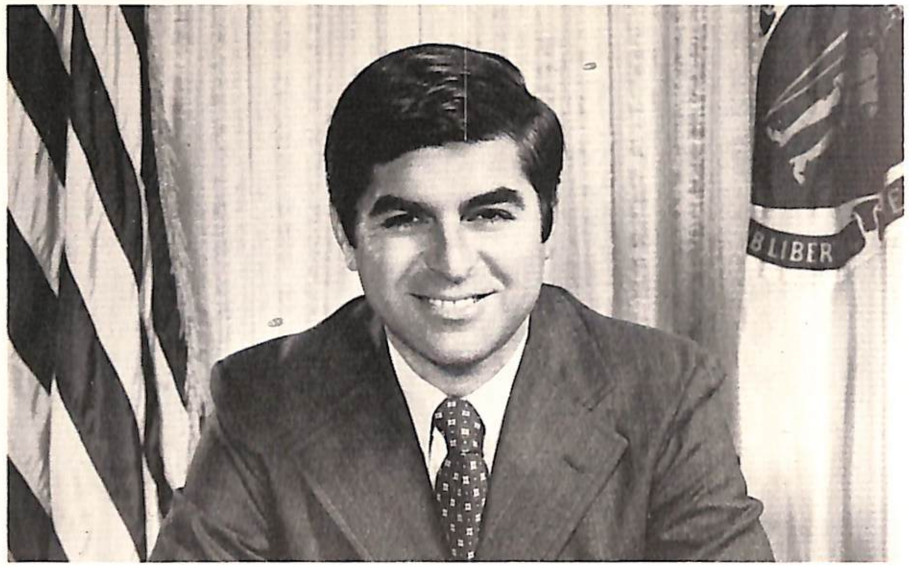
"Boston 200" the City's Bicentennial planning organization, featured the "Ancients" in several of their promotions including a special subway poster. A National Military Ball was held on Friday evening, April 18th at the John B. Hynes War Memorial Auditorium. Several hundred of the "Ancients," their ladies and guests plus national celebrities attended this gala event which was under the direction of First Lieutenant John F. Cremens.

The next morning, April 19th the National Military Parade and the 200th Anniversary of the Revolution saw 5,000 marchers parade with units from all over America participating. This parade was under the direction of Second Lieutenant James A. Lynch, Jr.

Among the several national articles published about the ANCIENT & HONORABLE COMPANY was a feature in the April issue of the "VFW Magazine" written by Captain Jack Drummey who also lead a contingent of the Company in the City of Cambridge's April 19th parade.

Past Commander Augustus J. Migell spoke at the dedication of a William Dawes, Jr. memorial — Dawes was an "Ancient."

Several thousand visitors to Boston will see the Armory and The Military Museum & Library Committee, under the Chairmanship of Captain Norbert S. Unger, made several improvements to insure that all would see the Company in "dress uniform."



Commander-in-Chief

MICHAEL S. DUKAKIS

TO THE SERGEANTS OF THE ANCIENT AND HONORABLE ARTILLERY COMPANY:

The Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company has always played an important role in helping the people of this historic State remember their heritage and their great traditions. This year, as people from around the world visit Massachusetts to learn our history and to share in our celebration of American freedom, you have an even greater role to play. All of us who love this State will be doing all we can to help make our guests happy. I know that the Ancient and Honorables will be in the forefront of this effort.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful year.

Sincerely,

Mike Dukakis

Congratulations To Our Sergeants of 1974-75

KEVIN H. WHITE

Mayor of Boston

As we in Boston prepare to launch a celebration of the nation's 200th birthday, it is fitting, too, that we offer congratulations to the Sergeants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company. For in carrying on the proud traditions of the nation's oldest militia company, you are as much a part of the great heritage of this City as Faneuil Hall and Bunker Hill.

Best personal wishes,

Kevin H. White

From the Sergeants

Dear Comrades:

As we approach another June Day which heralds the election of a new group of officers who will be guiding the destiny of this grand old military company, may we, the Sergeants of 1974-75 take this opportunity to thank you gentlemen for your unselfish support in all our activities throughout the year.

It has been an outstanding year, we believe, starting with our never to be forgotten trip to the Soviet Union and climaxed by a tremendous turnout for our Bi-Centennial Military Ball and parade. Our functions were well attended and it is the wish of all the Sergeants that a good time was had by all our comrades.

We wish also to thank our Captain, Robert Marr and his great staff for their fine assistance. Also, COL Lewis Whittemore, Sid Abbott, Don McDonald, Marty Connelly and CPT John D. Drummey. A special thanks to LT Ernie Montilio and to the son of one of our Sergeants, Charles Hoar, Jr., for his artistic talents in promoting our events throughout the year and the design of the cover for our year book.

Gentlemen; being a Sergeant in this fine military organization is an experience second to none and one which we shall treasure always. We regret that our year is rapidly coming to a close. However, we recommend to those members who have never placed their name in nomination for Sergeant to do so when election time comes around. As the Sergeants of 1974-75 will attest, you will never regret serving your Company in this capacity.

Again, sincere and warmest of thanks to our comrades and success to the newly elected Sergeants in all their endeavors for 1975-76.

If the British marched on Concord now, they'd never get past the Inn.

Back in April in 1775. the Concord Minutemen did a pretty good job of holding the British at the "Rude Bridge."

History buffs say different, but we think they came clear out from Boston Town for one of the Inn's famous Flintlocks . And the men of Concord didn't like the idea of sharing a good thing.

It's all different now. Our Village Forge Lounge, new Mercantile Dining Room and four public rooms can handle a troop or a regiment. We have 60 modern rooms. Good food. Plenty of free parking. We'd like everyone to come and see where it all began . . . including the British.
